Dear Sir, I read the complaint.

1. This is an action under Sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act to restrain anticompetitive conduct by defendant Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft"), the world's largest supplier of computer software for personal computers ("PCs"), and to remedy the effects of its past unlawful conduct.

I can only say this is not about the Sherman Act or for the benefit of the people. It's about money. It seems to me the judicial branch has found a way to legally expand professional employment. In summary, the complaint is like a deck of cards having 52 pages. You can make your hand by dictating the game. In due respect, stop this madness.
